- 19 Misconduct committed by a student outside the college campus but having the effect of damaging, undermining and tarnishing the image and reputation of the institution will make the student concerned liable for severe disciplinary action to the extent of expelling from the institution.
- 20 All students should follow the rules framed and updated by the college from time to time. Any clarification regarding above mentioned points can be obtained from the principal office during the working hours.

I have read all Rules and Regulations given above and I shall abide by them, failing which I am liable for punishment.
