Institutions Performance Appraisal System for teaching and non- teaching staff

The Institute has a well-defined Performance Based Appraisal System (PBAS) for teaching staff and Non-Teaching Staff which will be evaluated annually and Action will be taken based upon their performance.

Performance-Based Appraisal System for Teaching Staff:

- Faculty members complete an annual self-appraisal based on teaching-learning process, faculty feedback, awards/rewards, and contributions to extracurricular and co-curricular activities.
- Research contributions are also evaluated in terms of projects, publications, and guidance to students.
- Head of Department reviews and discusses strengths and weaknesses with staff before forwarding recommendations to management.

Non-Teaching Staff:

- Assessment is based on technical qualifications, awareness, work abilities, and punctuality.
- HOD assessment is reviewed by the concerned department, discussed with the Principal, and forwarded to management.

The institutions welfare measures for teaching and non- teaching staff

1. Financial Support

- Employees Provident Fund and Gratuity benefits are provided to all regularized employees.

2. Health Care and Insurance
