Anti-Ragging Committee Annual Report 2022-23

The anti- ragging committee is one of the key committees established to provide healthy and sound atmosphere, while pursuing educational aims and objectives. In order to encourage students to quickly approach the members of the Anti-ragging Cell for assistance, hoardings with their names and phone numbers are posted at strategic locations across the institution. The mandatory alert and the UGC Regulations on Restraining the Threat of Bullying in Higher Education Establishments, 2009 (published on June 17, 2009). The college website and notice board both feature the anti-ragging committee's information. CCTV Cameras were installed at vital spots in the campus and hostel to keep a check on the activities of the students in the college premises. The monitor installed in the principal's office also helps to maintain a round-the-clock vigilance on any kind of unlawful activity by the students.

In the beginning of the session, The Principal addressed to newly admitted students. The provision of the anti-nagging circular was described in details and the punishment meant for the offence is highlighted. And staff members also guide to newly admitted students in their respective classes. Similarly the committee constitute for women's empowerment also organized several programmes to spread awareness regarding their health issues and laws specially meant for them against gender discrimination, Women's rights, etc.

As a result of this no single complaint regarding ragging is received by the committee. However awareness campaign about ragging is the regular practice in the campus.
